

What's Cooking Summer Camps for Kids

What's Cooking is a Certified Green business that offers healthy and seasonal cooking classes and birthday parties to children of all ages in the San Francisco Bay Area. They will be offering two classes in San Anselmo this summer!

Sensational Summer Foods

What's Cooking Staff

Join us as we prepare sensational summer foods! We will learn how to Beat the Heat with cool and refreshing treats, make delicious Camping Cuisine, and enjoy treasures that are Fresh From the Garden. Students will learn about kitchen safety, age appropriate techniques, and how to make wise food choices for their bodies and the planet. They will become inspired to join you in the kitchen and help prepare family meals at home. Includes a $35 material fee.

Culinary Academy 101

What's Cooking Staff

The What's Cooking Culinary Academy 101 is ideal for students ages 10-13 who love to cook and are ready to move beyond the basics. Our hands-on classes will allow students to develop the skills, confidence and sense of adventure that will excite them to prepare and taste new healthy foods. They will work on basic knife skills and food safety as they create delicious International meals and desserts from scratch. Includes a $35 material fee
