Members present: Liz Anderson, Judy Coy, Tom Hendricks, Dick Miner, Joan Vermond.

Agenda for the meeting was approved (Hendricks/Vermond)

Minutes from the meeting of May 18, 2011 were approved (Hendricks/Vermond).

Treasurer's Report: Joan reported deposits of $100.00 from Judy's Patch article and $40.00 from the sale of books bringing the total in the Wells account to $2162.20

Oral History Project: No report.

Update on Then & Now Article: Judy submitted an article two weeks ago and it has not been published yet.

Collections/Database Acquisition: Judy reported the following:

- 1) Judy spent time updating the database with articles and old photographs, making sure everything is catalogued.
- 2) She is continuing to work with Greg Olsson and shared new pictures of the old/current San Anselmo juxtaposed.
- 3) The panel headings on the timeline need to be replaced. The colors have faded over time.

New Hallway Displays: Advertised in the newspaper for collectors who would like to display items. Received only one response and it was from someone who collects fans which are too big for the display cases.

Country Fair Day: Is scheduled for September 25th. The Commission will have a booth and has been asked to show videos in the Council Chambers. A suggestion was made to have abbreviated walking tours of downtown.

Possible new book on San Anselmo: Judy received an email from and then had a meeting with Beatrix Cox to discuss the challenges of writing a new book. Judy is waiting to hear whether she has decided to proceed or not.

Docent Schedule: No fifth Saturday in June. Tom can cover this Saturday in the museum.

Summer Schedule: The Commission agreed to take August off from a regular meeting. A potluck will be held on the same evening instead. More details to come.
