Agenda for the meeting was approved

Minutes from the meeting of March 21, 2012 were approved. (Miner/Coy).

Treasurer's Report: In Joan's absence Judy reported a deposit of $46.00 which brings the total in the Wells account to $1376.06.

Oral History Project: Dick will be interviewing 80 year old Dick Kientz whose family owned a bakery in downtown San Anselmo.

Collections/Database Acquisition: Judy shared the following:

- 1) Judy was able to scan loaned photographs of the construction of the home at 990 Butterfield around 1950 out of adobe bricks.
- 2) Patricia Byrne's (recently deceased Historical Society member) father was a photographer. Judy has arranged to review his slides to see if there is anything of interest for the museum's collection.
- 3) Judy purchased note cards which have old postcard images as well as "Greetings from San Anselmo" booklet for resale.
- 4) Dick brought in some scanned photographs of a home on San Francisco Boulevard being built of cinder blocks in 1940s.

New Hallway Displays: Dick following up on Log Cabin pictures for a new exhibit. Judy also suggested pictures of camping with captions in time for summer. Wendy volunteered to create the captions for this exhibit that will be titled "Destination San Anselmo".

Arcadia Book on San Anselmo: Judy is focusing on her talk next week as a priority.

Historical Society Program: Judy will host a talk on Samuel P. Taylor for the 2012 program on Thursday April 26th. Refreshments need to be brought to the museum by 7pm.

Docent Schedule: Andrea will help 1st Sat of the month starting in July.
