Micheal Feldman presented and idea to create a mural/street art on the walk way going past the Marin Coffee Roasters towards Creek Park. He suggested that art would depict people waiting in line for coffee and that the work would be taken from photos of "everyday" people around San Anselmo, ie., mothers with children, people with dogs etc. It was mentioned that anyone depicted would need to sign a release for their image to be displayed on the mural. It was mentioned that some of the people should be recognizable like the Police Chief. The photos would then be silk screened onto wall to be painted.

Ervin mentioned that this is a community project not the MCR's. Also the possibility of having a contest and to use facebookk to promote. This project.
