Discussion Items/Unfinished Business:

- 1) Oral History Project: No report
- 2) Collections Database/ Acquisitions/Research: Judy shared the following:
  - a. Wade Stevenson, former commissioner, donated his collection of San Anselmo and Marin books, pamphlets and maps. Rick has sorted through everything to determine duplicates. Will need to discuss as a group what to do with them.
  - b. Rick obtained several postcards from eBay which he scanned and shared.
  - c. Antone has purchased some matchbook covers he will bring in to share.
  - d. Judy purchased a baby book from the Ball Family estate sale. There are some photographs of Wade Thomas classes from the 1950s as well as report cards.
- 5) Museum Space Design: Penelope still coming in and organizing, including books and class photos from Wade Thomas/Main School. Judy is organizing the VHS tapes/DVDs.
- 6) Newspaper Digitization Project: Linda Kenton signed the agreement and sent it off to UC Riverside. Still waiting to hear back from Ancestry.com. Judy is hoping to be able to report next month.
- 7) Museum docent schedule: No changes.
- 8) San Anselmo Historical Society Program: coming up May 14th with speaker Jim Farley.

New Business:

- 1) Website Migration & Redesign: Judy reported that the original implementation was not great and it is challenging to make changes on the site so she is working to migrate to another service provider. The platform will be WordPress. The new site will look and feel different but will have the same content.
- 2) Photographs of Downtown Area: It is that time again! Dick has submitted his. Carol, John, and Alan have all signed up for sections!
