Discussion Items/Unfinished Business:

1. Oral History Project: Dick reported that no new oral histories had been conducted. He will follow up with Sara Godwin regarding some of the information in her interview. Judy reported that Jeff Kroot shared contact information for someone who knew Mrs. Robson of Robson-Harrington house.
2. Database/ Acquisitions/Research Projects:
Judy reported the following
 - a. No new acquisitions.
 - b. She did some research on the bridges of San Anselmo, which were all built in 1923, for someone who is considering restoring the lights on the Saunders Bridge.
 - c. Judy will be meeting with the Town's Planning Director about a listing of historic buildings.
3. Hallway Displays and New Projects:
Stapleton Nutcracker will be up until Jan 1st and then an interim display until spring when a "baseball" display will go up.
Use of Social Media discussion ended with agreement that everyone can post on Instagram and that we should post more frequently. Discussion as to how to get more followers.
4. Museum docent schedule: All shifts are covered.

New Business

1. Commission Comments/Announcements:
 - a. Dick is working on a downtown walking tour for adults which should be ready this spring. He suggests they be held on a monthly basis and have 10-12 people per tour.
 - b. Dabney Smith, who led a bicycle tour in San Anselmo, is interested in leading architectural or other tours. Judy will follow up with her.
