

December 27th 1910

The Board of Trustees of the Town of San Anselmo held a special called meeting this date at their usual meeting place designated by Ordinance.

There were present Trustees Gagon, Schrader, Stratford and Jones.

Absent, Trustee Whitaker.

Pres. W. E. Jones presided.

Due to the absence of Clerk A. A. Moore the chair appointed Trustee Stratford Clerk pro-tem.

Applications for renewal of liquor licenses for the year 1911 were considered but no official action taken.

Trustee Gagon moved that the deficit of the 1910 Fourth of July Celebration Committee in the sum of 79<sup>65</sup>/<sub>100</sub> be paid out of the general funds of the Town. Seconded by Trustee Stratford and duly carried.

In motion duly carried the meeting adjourned.

Attest

W. Stratford
Clerk pro-tem.
