Public Hearing

On the abandonment of portion of The Alameda and portion of Oakland Avenue. Wallace Meyers representing Frederick Faude who owns 13 acres on Oakland Avenue protesting this abandonment, stating the way he reads description this would hurt Mr. Faude's property, and asked City Attorney to go over notice and explain description. City Attorney read same. Charles Leitzell explained reason for Planning Commission approving this abandonment as Oakland Avenue is not a suitable street for any extra traffic. John Hill of DelMay Company explained streets which his company plan to develop - would give better road access to Faude property. Councilman Clute moves approval to abandonment of a portion of Oakland Avenue and a portion of The Alameda. Councilman Reichmuth seconds same. Passed unanimously

Appeal by Standard Oil Company to reconstruct their Service Station on Redhill Avenue, this matter was turned down by Planning Commission due to future widening of road. City Administrator explained no precise plan or indication from County or State when this road would be developed. City Attorney stated city has nothing in budget for future widening, therefore cannot see where development of this property can be held up. Councilman Clute moves to grant approval to request to develop property subject to meeting all building requirements. Councilman Capurro seconds same. Passed unanimously

Resolution No. 973 "A resolution classifying the City Library Personnel and establishing salary ranges, steps and classifications. Councilman Reichmuth moves adoption. Councilman Franchini seconds same. Passed unanimously
