17 Morningside Drive • San Anselmo, CA 94960
(415) 455-0132 careylando@gmail.com

Motivated to succeed as a leader in a professional planning agency.

EXPERIENCE

Twelve years of increasingly responsible experience in private, non-profit, and public agencies.

Senior Transportation Planner: 2001-Present. Transportation Authority of Marin (TAM) - County of Marin Department of Public Works. San Rafael, CA

- Project Manager for TAM's Transportation Planning Land Use Solutions Program (TPLUS) and the multi-million dollar Local TLC/HIP grant program while coordinating a consultant team of four specialty firms. Represents Marin County on regional transportation planning committees and conducts outreach and coordination with 12 local jurisdictions on local and regional grant opportunities; staffs and coordinates the TPLUS Advisory Committee; develops and administers the local TLC/HIP grant program for capital improvement projects supporting transit, walking and biking.
- Project Manager for the research and development of the Transit Oriented Development and Pedestrian Design Toolkit designed to provide locally-relevant solutions to encourage and support pedestrian and bike friendly development on private land and public right-of-ways while coordinating a consultant team of four specialty firms. Conducted individual meetings with local agency decision makers and department heads to determine barriers and challenges to implementing projects and conducted individualized parking policy inventory and workshops.
- Project Manager for the Canal Neighborhood Community Based Transportation Plan produced with intense community input and outreach and with close coordination with the City of San Rafael. Lead a collaborative team of six staff from the local agency, consultant team and a community based organization. Completion of the Plan in September 2006 lead to funding and implementation of several projects identified as priorities by the community members.
- Project Manager for a coordinated update to 10 local agency bike and pedestrian plans with a consultant staff of three. Key enhancements to the plans include: updated mapping; inclusion of Non-Motorized Transportation Pilot Program projects funded by a $25 Million Federal grant; Safe Routes to Schools capital projects funded by local, State and Federal grants; and coordination of local bicycle and pedestrian advisory groups for each agency.
- Key member of the Marin County Congestion Management Agency's (CMA, now TAM) Transportation Sales Tax Team that produced Marin's first long range transportation vision (Moving Forward – A 25-Year Transportation Vision for Marin County) and the development of a comprehensive transportation sales tax Expenditure Plan to finance projects outlined in the countywide vision. The Expenditure Plan development included intense outreach and consensus building with Marin's elected officials, five sub-regional appointed Citizen Advisory Committees and many advocacy groups. These efforts lead to the successful passage of Measure A, a half-cent transportation sales tax funding local bus transit, local infrastructure, Highway 101 HOV Gap Closure shortfalls, and School Access programs and projects. Current Measure A responsibilities include program administration and oversight of the award-winning Safe Routes to Schools Program and the Safe Pathways grant program designed to implement capital projects to increase safety around schools.
- Program Manager for the comprehensive Marin County Employee Commute Alternatives Program (ECAP) to encourage and support alternative modes of transportation for employee commuting. This Program was awarded a Clean Air Award for Outstanding Commute Program by the American Lung Association in 2003 and listed as an EPA Best Workplaces for Commuters employer for 4 years in a row.
- Web designer and web master for TAM's first public website; advised and directed development of updated website; manages content for public information and outreach; implements webcasting of TAM Board meetings.

- Assist in the management, organization, design and integration of County transportation plans with outside agencies and communities requiring a high level of public contact. Also provide and refine land use data and/or projections for traffic and general transportation studies.

Planner, 1999-2001. (Junior Planner, 1997- 1999) Marin County Community Development Agency. San Rafael, CA.

- Processed and evaluated complex projects involving public controversy; analyzed and interpreted projects utilizing CEQA; interpreted and applied countywide plan, zoning, subdivision and plan document policy information; employed successful conflict resolution skills to incorporate appropriate changes to projects in response to public concerns; coordinated and interacted with public agencies; worked diligently to quickly and efficiently process applications; presented to planning-related boards, commissions, and community groups; effectively utilized computers to produce, compile, and analyze planning-related data; provided Marin Countywide Plan, zoning, subdivision, and plan document policy information to the public.

Planning Intern (paid). Feb-Dec. 1997. City of San Rafael Planning Division. San Rafael, CA.

- Processed entry-level use permits, business licenses, and design review permits; prepared staff reports; presented projects in a public hearing forum; researched and applied general plan, zoning and parcel information; interfaced with public and other agency staff.

Student Planner. 1996- 1997. Department of Environmental Studies & Urban Planning. Sonoma State University. Rohnert Park, CA.

- Conducted public opinion, traffic, and land use surveys; researched and authored area background information; prepared goals, objectives, policies, and implementation measures; presented information to the public.

Research Associate. 1995-1997. Institute for Community Planning Assistance. Rohnert Park, CA.

- Conducted community planning surveys; wrote environmental baseline studies; collected habitat, species, and geologic data; researched parcel, zoning and easement information for properties; interfaced with the public; produced document maps; trained and supervised assistants.
